1.

It's not possible as green text turn red in black bg. We discussed is before and fixed as it is now.

2.

In masonry layout, column number must be fixed.
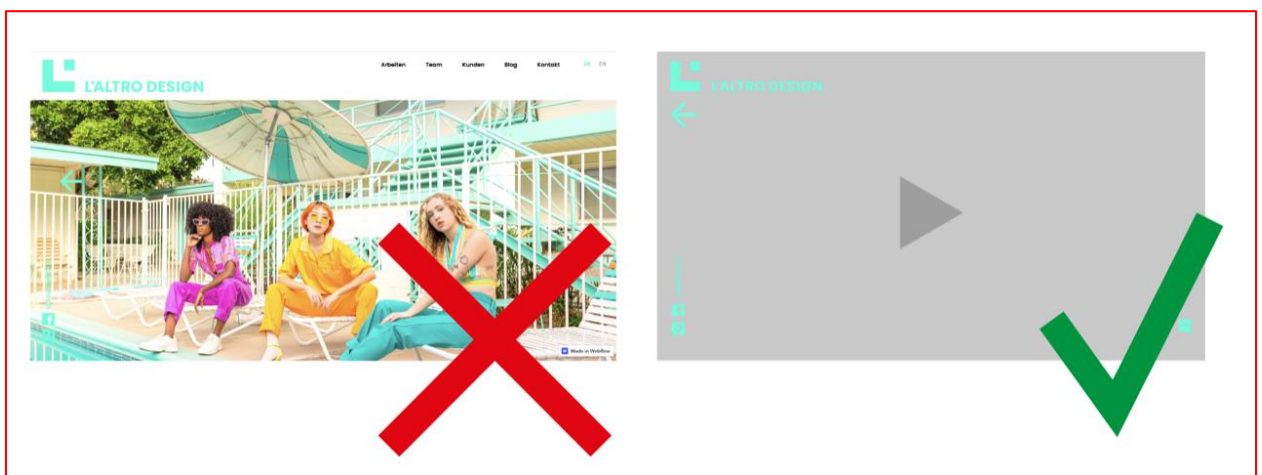

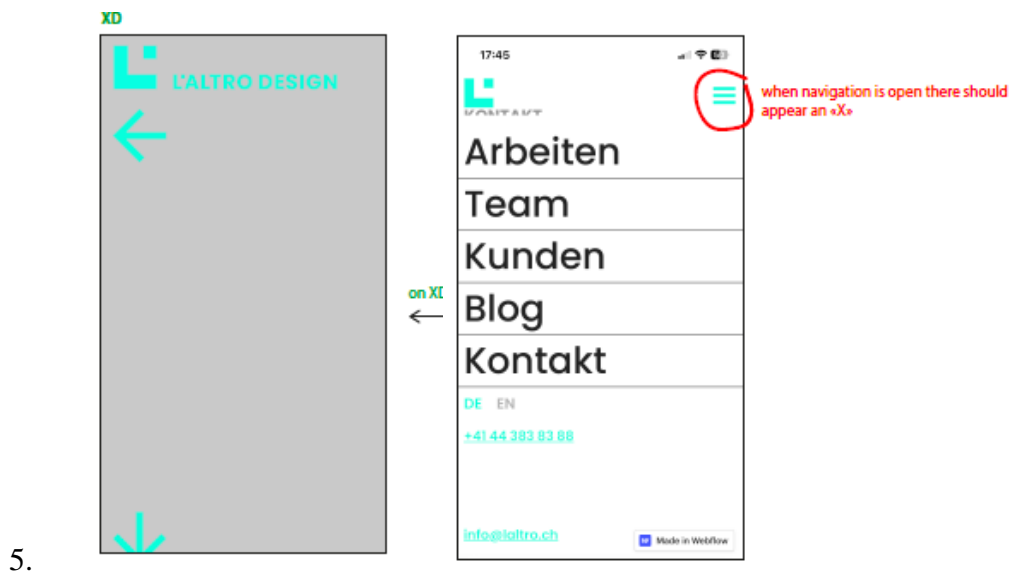

3.

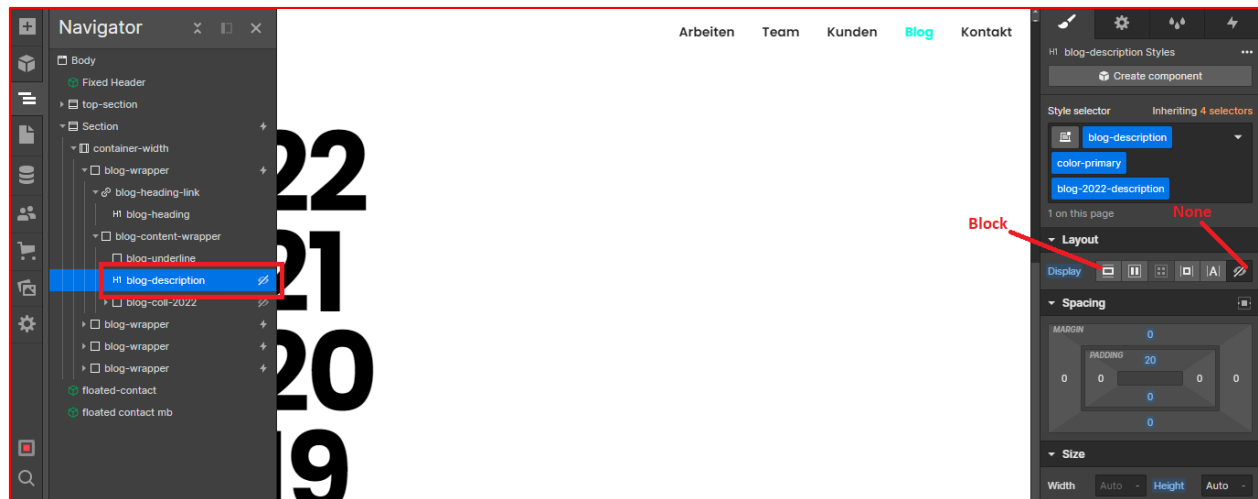

Not possible in current header set-up

We discussed it too. Webflow does not have these facilities. We can't customize bd design, it's their limitations.

5.

First one, not possible in current set up.
Second one, webflow doesn't offer this facility.

Q. I can not change the text of «2022». Should be:

Go to particular year or blog's description. Make display block, change text, make display none then save and publish.
